

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH
HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

THE OLDEST AMERICAN PARISH IN CONTINUOUS EXISTENCE IN AMERICA
ESTABLISHED IN 1686 THIS IS THE FOLLOWS
CHURCH BUILT IN THE PARISH IT WAS DEDICATED IN 1786 IN THE AREA
OF A LATER CHURCH ITS WALLS ARE
TWO FEET THICK THE BRICKS ARE
Laid in running bond THE COMMUNION
TABLE STANDS IN THE NARROW AISLE AND HAS BEEN USED BY THE MOST PRECIOUS
BLOOD IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH IN AMERICA THESE VENERABLE WALLS HAVE WITNESSED SOME OF THE SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS
OF OUR HISTORY AND THE UNION BETWEEN THE STATES

HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

St. John's Church is one of the oldest remaining churches. Rebuilt in 1869 and finished substantially as it is today. Communion silver dates back to 1622, being oldest in continuous use in America.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Pub. by Rowe Distributing Co., Norfolk, Va. 23509

Post Card

29708-C

dp

MADE BY
DEXTER PRESS, INC.
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK